Competition guidelines, please read carefully

- Auditions are open to families, but closed to teachers. Teachers may listen from outside the sanctuary at Park Central Presbyterian Church.
- Contestants must furnish their own accompanist.
- Contestants must furnish one original solo part or accompaniment part of all repertoire to the judges. (No copies allowed)
- Memorization is recommended, but not required.
- All Winners and Honorable Mention recipients commit themselves to performing on the winner's recital, Sunday, May 4, 2020 at 1:30 PM at Park Central Presbyterian Church.
- Monetary awards will be given, depending upon enrollment, up to a maximum of three places per division.
- Information about competition day details and final results will be given to teachers only, by e-mail or telephone.
- Prior division winners will be required to move up to the next division regardless of age.
- Rules set forth on this page will be strictly enforced.

FOR PARENTS:

- We attest that the information given on this application is accurate.
- We understand that should our child win a place in this competition, he/she has an obligation to perform at the winner's recital on May 4, 2020. Should a student not fulfill this obligation, they shall relinquish their place and prize. In the event of illness or family emergency this rule will not apply.
- We understand that our child may be photographed and recorded by CNYAMT at the winner's recital. We give our permission for CNYAMT to use our child's image and/or musical performance for publicity and/or archival purposes only.
- If you have a time constraint, please notate it on the line below and we will do our best to accommodate your needs. Scheduling requests made after the application due date may not be accepted.
