Competition Guidelines and Rules:

- The competition will take place in a virtual format, with competition videos being submitted by YouTube link.
- Entrants of Senior, Intermediate, Junior, and Elementary levels are required to present more than one piece, representing at least two stylistic periods. No arranged piano pieces may be played. Memorization is required. Student compositions will be allowed only if the student performs two other contrasting pieces from the standard published repertoire within the allotted performance time.
- Entrants must not repeat repertoire from prior CNYAMT years' competitions.
- In lieu of a winners' recital this year, the first place winners of the Senior, Intermediate, Junior, and Elementary Competitions (High Honors) will have their performance videos posted on the CNYAMT YouTube Channel. All other winners will choose one of their pieces to post on the Channel.
- The link to the YouTube video performance with a repertoire list will be emailed to the Division Chairs listed on the first page. The performance video will show a profile camera view that includes both hands and feet of the contestant playing their competition program. Each selection must be shown in one take, with no editing. The entrant may submit one video with all selections or multiple videos of each selection separately. Please state the title of the selection before playing each one.
- Important Note: This is an anonymous competition. Do NOT state your name on the video or have it included on the YouTube submission in any way. Videos that include identifying material will be disqualified.
- Competition final results will be emailed to teachers within two weeks of the video deadline.
- Rules set forth on this page will be strictly enforced.
- Please refer any questions to the Division Chairperson.
