

Central New York Association of Music Teachers ...Since 1931

Dear Friends and CNY Supporters of the Arts;

CNYAMT invites you, your school or business to become one of our local sponsors supporting music and the performing arts! CNYAMT (Central New York Association of Music Teachers) is a non-profit organization of well-known private music teachers who have been active in our community since 1931. Their names, location and contact information are available on our web-page under "teacher search". Our purpose is to provide musical opportunities and scholarships for the "up and coming" generation of student musicians of all ages from the Central New York area. CNYAMT would like to offer you an opportunity to list you, your school, or business as a sponsor on our website, www.cnyamt.org. Whenever possible, we post a list of sponsors at our local events. Teachers, parents and students regularly check our web-site for current information. We have many local sponsors and would love to add your support! Funds for events and scholarships come from our sponsorship program.

The annual fee for sponsorship is $100. We hope that you will consider supporting our organization. To be a sponsor, please fill out and return the form on the following page. Your support will have far reaching benefits for hundreds of students in our community. We are committed to keeping performing arts and music education alive in central New York. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Barbara Irwin
